

2024 TLBT SENIOR SALE

General Information & Contract

The TLBT Senior Heifer Sale allows a small group of graduating seniors, to sell an animal of their choice at the World Show each year. Participants are required to read the general information and sign the contract below. A member of the World Show Steering Committee, or designated representative, will be available as a consultant and to help advise the participants in ways to market their animals and secure potential purchasers.

Eligibility & Requirements

- Youth participants must be current, paid members of the TLBT for a minimum of two years.
- Participants must be a graduating high school senior from an accredited high school or an approved home school curriculum in the 2023-2024 year.
- Participants may only sell one animal.
- Participants must submit a portfolio to the committee no later than check-in at the 2024 TLBT National Show. The portfolio must include an essay on what the TLBT has done for you, what your plans are for the future, and how you have marketed your animal. It must also include a copy of the animal's registration papers and at least two pictures of you and your animal.
- The animal you sell may be registered in your name, but that is not a requirement. It may be in a ranch name, your parent's name, your grandparent's name, or the name of someone who has donated the animal to you for this sale.
- The animal you plan to sell must have qualified for and entered in the 2024 TLBT National Show.
- All animals will be sold for the amount of the bid. There will be no PO's.
- Funds will be distributed to the seller once collected by TLBAA.
- Of the Senior participants, one Senior will be selected based on their marketing skills.
- The original registration papers and a signed transfer should be turned into the show office when checking in at the 2024 TLBT National Youth Show.

Participants may utilize up to two e-blasts courtesy of the TLBAA to market their animals. Additionally, each participant will be allocated a quarter page ad in the World Show program.

The winner will be given a prize for "Senior Marketing Champion" and will be encouraged to help advise the next year's participants.

- All contracts must be submitted to the TLBAA Office by the deadline February 1, 2024 at the address below or to salesandevents@tlbaa.org.

Recommendations

- Seniors may enter a heifer, steer or bull, but females are recommended.
- Participants are encouraged to seek bidders for your animal before the sale. This should be mentioned in your portfolio. This may be done through e-mail, texts, phone calls, social media, mail, promotion at sales and shows, or any other avenue.
- It is recommended the animal you choose to sell be young enough that it could be shown in the following show season.

All participants will be considered, regardless of applicant's socio-economic status, race, color, sex, religion, national origin or disability.

I have read and understand the general information presented in this contract. I understand that I am expected to follow the guidelines and requirements as stated above. If I fail to do so, I understand that I may not be allowed to participate in the Senior Heifer Sale.
